

Scan QR code to link to website
where you can post your grievance (or a thankyou)

York Human Rights

A website to post your grievances (or thankyou) with the City of York Council

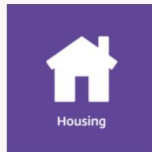

WWW.YORKHUMANRIGHTS.NET

The City of York Council declared York as the first Human Rights city in the UK in 2017. We need to ensure that our Council lives up to its aspirations to enhance our Human Rights. One way is to make a public declaration of where the Council has failed to do this. The 5 key priority human rights are:

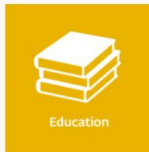

Image taken from the York Human Rights website - www.yorkhumanrights.org.

Health & Social Care

Housing

Education

Equality & non-discrimination

Decent standard of living

If you have a grievance with the City of York Council in any of these areas, please login to the York Human Rights website and post your grievance. Alternatively, if you believe the Council has done something to benefit your Human Rights, please post a thank you.

Email: York.Human.Rights@gmail.com

York Human Rights Community

When you login into the website, you will join the York Human Rights Community which is supported by British Institute of Human Rights - www.bihhr.org.uk.